EDUCATION

William Paterson University is committed to providing quality programs to enhance teacher development and continuing education. Our goal is to engage the education community in an ongoing dialog about effective teaching practices that will enable all students to reach their full potential as learners. We are an approved provider of professional development for the State of New Jersey. Participants in our programs receive Professional Development credits.

Our Heller Institute for Teaching, Learning and Leadership faculty is available to tailor professional development for your school or district and can assist with assessment related research and curriculum development. Additionally, any workshop described in this catalog can be delivered during one of your district's in-service days.

For more information about professional development opportunities, please visit our website: http://www.wpunj.edu/coe/Heller Institute/ or contact Nancy Norris-Bauer at (973) 720-3131 or norrism@wpunj.edu.

HIT IT OUT OF THE PARCC! LANGUAGE ARTS STRATEGIES AND ACTIVITIES FOR GREAT SCORES

Target Audience: Language Arts/ elementary teachers, grades 3-11

Unlike the NJASK, the PARCC cannot be prepped for with workbook materials. Students need to be taught great reading and writing strategies, so this workshop contains ideas teachers can use in their classrooms tomorrow to develop better readers and writers who will then perform better on assessments. These amazingly successful materials have been teacher and kid tested and are sure to yield the desired results.

Presenter: Ernest Ciardi, WPUNJ Professor in Residence

Date: Thursday, March 9, 2017

Time: 9:00 am - 12:00 pm

Course Number: E313

EFFECTIVE CLASSROOM MANAGEMENT STRATEGIES

Target Audience: All Teachers

Did you know that there are only 4 types of behavior? This workshop will teach you how to assess what students are seeking, behaviorally, by initially determining how each behavior makes you feel. By pausing and assessing, you will be equipped with concrete strategies that truly work. Bring your classroom management issues and be prepared to leave knowing how to solve each one.

Presenter: Linda Banach, WPUNJ Professor in Residence

Date: Thursday, March 16, 2017

Time: 4:30 pm - 7:30 pm

Course Number: E389

HOW TO STRENGTHEN ELA INSTRUCTION WITH PRIMARY SOURCES: BUILD BACKGROUND KNOWLEDGE AND CRITICAL THINKING SKILLS

Target Audience: Classroom Teachers, ELA Supervisors

Primary sources play an important role in English Language Arts instruction and naturally are integrated across the curriculum. Participants will experience and understand how using primary sources to scaffold reading activities can support students' comprehension of nonfiction and informational text.

Presenters: Marie Donnantuono, WPUNJ Coordinator of New Vistas Teaching Project

Date: Wednesday, March 22, 2017

Time: 4:00 pm - 7:00 pm

Course Number: E360

THE 16 PERSONALITY TYPES: HOW THEY PLAY A ROLE IN THE CLASSROOM

Target Audience: All teachers

Before you can reach your students, it is helpful to know and appreciate yourself. Often times, teachers design lesson plans according to their own personality type learning style preference. Once you understand and appreciate the 16 very different personality types, you will be able to adjust your teaching style with sensitivity to the personality types of your students. This workshop will also help you better understand your family members so that you can build positive relationships.

Presenters: Linda Banach, WPUNJ Professor in Residence

Date: Thursday, March 30, 2017

Time: 4:30 pm - 7:30 pm
